Message From The Pastor

Following the outstanding and overwhelming response to the (now postponed to early spring) Eucharistic Revival in our Diocese, Bishop Brennan has asked us to shine a bright light on the presence of Jesus in our midst in the Eucharist that we share and adore.

What better way to set our sights on “God-with-us” than in the coming season of ADVENT.

In the weeks to come, we will be drawing attention to the many ways we focus on our encounter with the Lord here with us! We are embarking on a process of Eucharistic renewal!

In preaching and catechesis (teaching about the faith) we will have opportunities to explore the meaning of the Eucharist and grow together as faithful disciples through our experience of the Mass.

The world needs the healing and hope only Jesus can provide.

This all begins with our own life-changing encounter with him in our daily lives.

More to come in the following weeks...

“I’m wondering if we can make a concerted effort to spend an equal amount of time adoring God in one another as we do in our tabernacles”
~Most Rev. John Dolan, Bishop of Phoenix

San Martín de Tours ~ Feast Day Nov 11

Legend tells us that Martin the soldier met a beggar on the road. He took his own cloak and tore it in two to share with the poor man. Later that night in a dream Jesus came to him to thank him for his cloak. Martin is a patron saint of care for the poor and destitute.

La leyenda cuenta que el soldado Martín se encontró con un mendigo en el camino. Tomó su propio manto y lo rompió en dos para compartirlo con el pobre. Más tarde esa noche, en un sueño, Jesús se le acercó para darle gracias por su manto. Martín es un santo patrón del cuidado de los pobres y los indigentes.
