Message From The Pastor

As we move through this Month of Prayer & Remembrance,
we take a moment to recall the blessings of God in our lives in the many days and ways we remember:

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

ALL SAINTS' DAY

The Saints who have gone before us in faith, hope, and charity.

ALL SOULS' DAY

The Holy Souls who have been examples to us of lives lived in love. The names of those whose funerals were celebrated here are inscribed in the Book of Remembrance at the Baptism Font.

VETERANS' DAY

The men and women of courage and conviction who have given service to humanity.

THANKSGIVING DAY

The many gifts that have come to us, and the profound gratitude we offer to God; in our willingness to share what we have with others we are truly blessed.

CHRIST THE KING FEAST DAY

The graces and blessings that come to us in our faith, in our living-out Gospel values of hope & love.

"I'm wondering if we can make a concerted effort to spend an equal amount of time adoring God in one another as we do in our tabernacles"
~Most Rev. John Dolan, Bishop of Phoenix
