Catholic Charities Brooklyn and Queens Office of Mission Presents

FAITH IN ACTION: 125⁺

Our Mission as the Body of Christ

How to Incorporate Catholic Social Teaching in Parish Life to Address the Dire Needs of the Communities of Brooklyn and Queens

Saturday, May 16, 2026 | 8:45 AM - 3:00 PM
Christ the King High School
68-02 Metropolitan Ave, Middle Village, NY 11379

Keynote Speaker: Brian Corbin, Ed. D.
Executive Vice President, Member Services, Catholic Charities USA

WHY THIS MATTERS?

We are living in difficult times. Members of our community—migrants, homeless neighbors, at-risk youth, and underserved families—face struggles they should not face alone. Parish leaders and ministers can learn together with social justice ministers and social workers to address the needs of those who are struggling in our communities. As the Body of Christ, our parishes, schools, and institutions are called to minister and serve. This Easter season, join us as one Body in answering the call to support social ministries that respond to our brothers and sisters in need.

TOPICS TO DISCUSS:

Understanding the Migration Crisis Understanding the Housing Crisis Understanding the Youth Crisis
